

Carnival Functions

Entertainments for Everyone.

A DELIGHTFUL VARIETY SHOW.

The Variety Show given at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leon, Oxford Road, Parktown, on Sunday evening last proved a most delightful function. Over 100 guests assembled to listen to an entertainment programme supplied by the Co-Optimists of the Jewish Guild, led by Mr. Harold Miller—that fine entertainer. Included in the programme were some humorous skits on particularly Jewish subjects which made a special appeal to the audience. Greatest credit is due to the Co-optimists for the exhibition of some splendid talent. It was altogether a most enjoyable function and at the end, Mrs. Z. Braun expressed the deepest appreciation of the audience on the work of the artistes. Mr. Isaac Marks expressed appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Leon for giving their home for the function and for the generous hospitality which they displayed towards the guests.

This successful function was organised by the ladies of the Committee of the Saxonwold Branch of the Women's Zionist League and the members of the Jewish Guild Co-optimists, who performed during the evening were: the Misses Lillian Barnett, Frieda Gross, Rita Gross, Miriam Myers, Gertrude Wade, Messrs. Ike Baruch, Dan Levy (pianist), Harold Miller (producer), Sander Ostrowiak, Issy N. Shenker and Maurice Tatz.

OTHER SUCCESSFUL FUNCTIONS.

Several successful functions were held during the week-end which proved both enjoyable and increased the Carnival funds by a considerable amount.

Mrs. S. M. Gordon's evening, arranged under the auspices of the Parktown Branch, yielded the magnificent sum of £84 2s. 6d.

Mrs. S. Sieff's party, which was beautifully arranged, realised the fine sum of £21 15s., which goes towards the Yeoville Branch quota.

The Berea Branch has also benefited by £17 5s., being the proceeds of the evening arranged by Mesdames N. B. and Frank Levy, at the residence of the former.

PRIVATE FUNCTIONS.

We again announce the following private functions which are to take place this month. Saturday evening, the 22nd inst., has been reserved for an evening given by Mrs. Rheinhold of the Houghton Branch and Mrs. S. Blum of the Kensington Branch. On Monday afternoon, the 24th, a bridge drive is being held at the residence of Mrs. Abelheim. This function, arranged by Mesdames Abelheim and Weinbrenn, is under the auspices of the Saxonwold Branch. The Parktown Branch is again having a party on the 29th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Youngleson.

GOLF COMPETITION.

The September programme of activities opens with a novel event in the form of a Golf Competition, under the auspices of the Saxonwold Branch. Mrs. Z. Braun is arranging a ladies' greensome golf competition which will take place at the Houghton Golf Course, on Tuesday, September 1st. Play commences at 1.15 p.m. The entrance is 2s. 6d. for each player, which also includes tea. Entries are invited from ladies without handicaps and a separate prize will be given in this section for the best gross score. A treat is therefore in store for golf enthusiasts.

FASHION PLAY.

Ladies keep open Wednesday afternoon, September 2nd, for the Fashion Play which will be produced at the Langham Hotel at 3.15. This promises to be a most entertaining afternoon. Advance spring modes will be exhibited, musical items will be rendered, and tea will be supplied—all for the low price of 2s. 6d.

MORE PRIVATE FUNCTIONS.

On Saturday evening, the 5th September a number of private parties will be given in aid of the Carnival. Mrs. G. Sackstein, of 43, Hendon Street, will be entertaining, the proceeds of this function being devoted to the Doornfontein Branch. Mrs. M. Levin, of Duthie Street, Kensington, and Mrs. J. Frame, of 2, Berea Road, Bertrams, are also "At Home" on the same evening.

ASTORIA KINEMA PERFORMANCE.

The Belgravia Branch of the Women's Zionist League wish to remind their friends of the Matinee performance, at the Astoria Kinema on Wednesday, the 9th September, which is being held in aid of the Carnival. A fine programme will be screened so be sure to attend.

ACTIVITIES OF OBSERVATORY BRANCH.

In order to raise their quota towards the Carnival, the Observatory Branch has initiated a series of entertainments. These include a Tennis Tournament on Tuesday afternoon, the 25th inst., to be held at several courts in Observatory and vicinity. The entrance is 2s. 6d. each and enquiries are to be made from Mrs. Slood, 188, Regent Street, ('Phone Yeoville 2222). Ladies are advised to submit their entries immediately. Then, the Grand Cabaret at the Langham Hotel on the 26th inst., is also an effort of this branch, whilst on Wednesday afternoon, September 9th, a series of parties are being arranged at the homes of the following: Mrs. S. Meyerowitz, 202, Regent Street; Mrs. N. M. Slood, 188, Regent Street; and Mrs. M. Hammerschlag, 22, Urania Street. Enquiries are to be made from the above ladies.

On the occasion of the function given by Mrs. A. Kirson on the 1st inst., Miss F. Joffe, Secretary of the Doornfontein Branch of the Women's Zionist League, presented a beautiful dressed doll which realised £2 12s. 6d.
