

Carnival Functions

Entertainments for Everyone.

ENTERTAINMENTS HELD OVER THE WEEK-END.

Last Saturday evening, Mrs. J. Frame, of 2 Berea Road, Bertrams, entertained her friends, as a result of which the handsome sum of £40 1s. 9d. was realised towards the Carnival funds.

Under the auspices of the Doornfontein Branch, on Saturday evening, Mr. G. Sackstein, of Hendon Street, was "At Home" to her friends, on which occasion a box of chocolates, kindly presented by Mrs. M. Stein, of 15 Saratoga Avenue, raised £3 7s. The total proceeds of the evening amounted to nearly £40.

As a result of the evening organised by Mrs. M. Levin at her residence in Duthie Street, Kensington, at Saturday last, the Carnival funds have benefited to the extent of £10 17s. 6d.

The treasure hunt arranged by Mrs. W. Aronsohn on Sunday evening proved very enjoyable. This effort raised £11, which is devoted to the Saxonwold Branch, under whose auspices it was held.

BRIDGE AFTERNOON.

Bridge enthusiasts, don't forget that Mrs. J. B. Hochman, of 37 Sherwood Road, has arranged an afternoon for you next Friday, the 18th instant. This is being arranged to swell the funds of the Parktown Branch.

YIDDISH PLAY.

Patrons are advised to book seats immediately at the Carlton Booking Office for the interesting drama, "Shattered Life," which is being produced at the Standard Theatre on Monday evening, the 21st inst. ## DANCING MIDST DELIGHTFUL SURROUNDINGS.

We wish to announce that the dance which was to have been held on Saturday evening, the 19th inst., at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Block, 162 Louis Botha Avenue, has been postponed for Thursday evening, the 24th inst. This attractive function promises to be one of the social events of the season, when dancing will be indulged in to the strains of Gaby Peimer's Orchestra midst the delightful surrounding of this charming residence, moonlit gardens and picturesque terraces. Double tickets are 15s., everything being absolutely inclusive. Remember this new date!

NOVEL FUNCTION.

Mrs. Moss Cohen is very busy arranging unusual attractions for the dance to be held at her home, 70 Second Avenue, Parktown North, on Sunday evening, the 27th inst. Outdoor attractions and novelties will be arranged on the beautiful lawns. Tickets are 12s. 6d., and further enquiries should be made direct from Mrs. Cohen.

ENTERTAINMENT AT "STEPHANIE"

All those who are desirous of attending the pleasant afternoon which is being arranged by Mrs. M. London, of Rock Ridge Road, Parktown, at the "Stephanie," High Street, Berea, are advised to communicate with her immediately. Various attractions are being arranged for non-card players. Remember the date, Monday afternoon, September 28th.

PRIVATE FUNCTIONS.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 30th inst., Mrs. L. Cowen, assisted by Mrs. G. Sable, is organising a bridge drive to be held at her residence, 14 Rhodes Avenue, Parktown.

On the evening of the same day, Mrs. B. Moss-Morris, of 47 The Curve, is entertaining her friends, and will devote the proceeds of the evening to the Belgravia Branch of the Women's Zionist League.

Support Carnival
functions and combine pleasure with National Duty.

"GOWNS AND GOSSIP."

Ladies, remember the date, Wednesday afternoon, the 23rd inst., for the fashion play, "Gowns and Gossip," to be produced at the Langham Hotel. The following cast are busy rehearsing for this novel play: Miss Lily Couzin, Kathleen Goldfoot, Lily and Frieda Goldberg, Milly Maisel, Nettie Rosofsky, Benita Udwin and Tilly Weinfeld. The Misses L. Goldberg and T. Weinfeld will render vocal items during the action of the play.

A string quartette, consisting of Mrs. L. D. Phillips, Mrs. J. Davis, Misses Manoim and Lorna Johnson, will render musical items during the tea interval. Tickets are only 2s. 6d. In attending this function, ladies will have the opportunity of seeing advance modes, in all spending a most enjoyable afternoon, and thereby supporting the Jewish National Fund.

DANCE AT JEPPE TALMUD TORAH HALL.

The Belgravia Branch are actively busy making preparations for a big dance which they are holding on Wednesday evening, the 30th inst., at the Jeppe Talmud Torah Hall. The well-known orchestra, Chicks Cabaret Kittens, will be in attendance. The tickets are absurdly low, being 3s. 6d. double and 2s. 6d. single. Various novelties are being arranged. An extremely enjoyable evening is assured.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT AT GERMISTON.

The grand concert which is taking place on Sunday evening the 13th inst. (Motze Rosh Hashonah) will be staged at the Rialto Kinema, Germiston. Amongst the numerous sketches organised will be one in Yiddish produced by the members of the Young Israel Society. Tickets are selling fast for this affair, which will undoubtedly be the event of the season in Germiston circles.

WITBANK DOES ITS SHARE.

The ladies of the Witbank Zionist Society were instrumental in organising a very enjoyable social function, which was held on Sunday evening, August 30th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dembo. The sum of £12 7s. was realised on this occasion towards the funds of the Carnival, and this auspicious start augurs well for the affair which they are organising now and which will be held some time after Yom Tov. Special thanks are due to Mr. L. Ginsberg for his kind assistance, and to one and all who helped to make this affair such a success.
