

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mr. Isaac Ochberg returned to Capetown on Monday after a three months' visit to Europe.

The engagement is announced of Miss Evie Green, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Jacob Green, of Oudtshoorn, to Mr. Gerson Stange, eldest son of Mr. and the late Mrs. S. Stange, of Lichtenburg.

Miss Lottie Kottler presented recently a handsome cover for a Sepher Torah in the Braamfontein Synagogue, in memory of her late father, Mr. Morris Kottler. The gift was generally admired during the recent High Festivals by the worshippers and members of the congregation.

The engagement is announced of Lily, youngest daughter of Mr. N. Hodes and the late Mrs. Hodes, of Johannesburg, to Abie, third son of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. Ginsberg, of Luderitz, South-West Africa.

FRAM—LYONS.

The marriage was solemnised at the Yeoville Synagogue in Johannesburg on Wednesday evening of Fanny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Fram, to Colman, son of Mrs. F. L. Lyons. The synagogue was tastefully decorated with flowers. Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi) officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. A. T. Shrock and the Rev. N. Lopato. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sybil Fram, as maid of honour and the bridesmaids were the Misses Lily and Ann Lyons. Dr. N. Fram carried out the duties of best man.

A largely attended reception was subsequently held at the City Hall, and the gathering present was representative of Jewry on the Witwatersrand. The toast of the health of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Dr. J. L. Landau. The newly married couple are sailing on Friday from Capetown for Europe, where their honeymoon is to be spent.

Every Business Man

must have on his desk a copy of
THE SOUTH AFRICAN COMMERCIAL ALMANACK AND BUSINESS GUIDE.
A useful and comprehensive Compendium of authentic information.
PUBLISHED QUARTERLY.

Forward Remittance of One Pound (£1) for one year's subscription to
The South African Commercial
Almanack and Business Guide
(Pty.), Ltd.,
14-17 Midland House, Box 2232,
Johannesburg.

GAVRONSKY—POSEL.

In the great synagogue in Wolmarans Street on Tuesday evening the marriage took place of Miss Gertrude Gavronsky to Dr. M. M. Posel. The ceremony was conducted by Dr. J. L. Landau (Chief Rabbi).

Miss Betsy Klavansky attended the bride as maid of honour, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Helen Gavronsky, Nita Williams, Nettie Malks, Leah Sersel, Beatrice Goldberg and Judith Falcke. Miss Gina Fine was the flower girl and Miss Audery Fine carried out the duties of page boy. Mr. Lionel Kirsch ably carried out the duties of best man.

A reception was subsequently held at the City Hall, and was largely attended.

A "Fashion Play"

Successful Production at the Langham Hotel.

Under the auspices of the Parkview-Westcliffe Branch of the Johannesburg Women's Zionist League, a fashion play entitled "Gowns and Gossip" was successfully produced before a large audience of ladies on Wednesday afternoon at the Langham Hotel, by Mrs. L. D. Phillips.

The plot of the play, the author of which was Louis D. Wall, was a simple one, and the eight girls who took part portrayed modern "bachelor girls" in an easy and charming manner. The scenes took place in the morning, afternoon and evening of one day, and many outstanding and original model frocks were displayed. The last act of the production, which included a bridal procession, was enacted by Miss Benita Udwin as the bride and Miss Lily Couzin as the maid of honour. The other attendants were all attractively clothed in gowns kindly supplied by several Johannesburg firms, who also provided shoes, flowers and all the necessary accessories. Others who took part in this entertaining production were the Misses Jeanette Rosofsky, Kathleen Goldfoot, Millie Maisels and Sophie Rabinowitz.

During the whole of the performance music was provided by Mrs. L. D. Phillips, Mrs. I. Davis, Miss Bessie Manoim and Miss Lorna Johnson, while two of the cast, the Misses Lily Goldberg and Tilly Weinfeld, sang a duet and solos.

Special thanks are due to the Parkview-Westcliffe Branch of the Women's Zionist League for their indefatigable efforts in making this function such a success and also to Mrs. L. Leslie, who was responsible for the make-up. As a result of this production, the Jewish National Fund will benefit considerably by the proceeds.

An American Dance.

Under the auspices of the Saxonwold Branch of the Johannesburg Women's Zionist League, a most successful American dance was held at the delightful home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lourie in Anerley Road, Parktown, on Wednesday evening.

It was an extremely smart function and beautifully arranged. The charming home of the host and hostess lent itself specially to the holding of a dance of this nature and all who attended enjoyed themselves immensely. The function was graced by the presence of Mr. Justice Greenberg and Mrs. Greenberg—as well as by many of the leading workers of the Carnival for the Redemption of the Sharon—in aid of which this attractive affair was held.

MAISON FLORA

Flora Starfield

Ladies Hairdressing Beauty Parlour—All thoroughly qualified Assistants.

7, Tower Buildings, Corner Plein and Joubert Streets

Morning & Afternoon Tea served.

Telephone Central 6628

JOHANNESBURG.