To commemorate the founding of the South African Jewish Orphanage, a ball will take place in the City Hall on Wednesday, November 4. Guests are requested to book their tables for supper with Mr. Alec Henochsberg (phone Central 7343) as soon as possible. Supper will be served in the Selborne Hall. Special dancing turns are arranged, and everything points to a successful event.

The marriage took place at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, Johannesburg, on October 21, of Miss Elsa Fram to Mr. John Rabinovitz.

On Sunday, November 1, at 7.30 p.m., at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, the marriage will take place of Miss Bertha Rosenberg to Mr. B. Sacher. The reception will be held in the Selborne Hall.

Miss May Merimsky, who, during the course of the year, has been successful in obtaining several first class diplomas and a gold medal at the recent Johannesburg Eisteddfod, is being congratulated on having gained her L.T.C.L. diploma for elocution.

Mr. I. H. Levine, B.A., who was on a visit to his parents at Pietersburg, is leaving to-day by the "Arundel Castle" to resume his studies at Jews' College, London.

DRUCKMAN—RICHMAN.

The Rev. S. Steinberg officiated at the marriage in the Selborne Hall on Sunday evening last of Miss Lily Druckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Druckman and Mr. Abraham Richman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richman. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. M. Druckman and Mrs. Moscovitz, and the canopy bearers, Messrs. Max and Morris Richman, S. Ostrofsky and H. Levy.

Miss Hetty Gordon attended the bride as maid of honour and the Misses Z. Rosenberg and D. Phillips acted as bridesmaids. Little Natalie Fineberg made a dainty flower girl. Mr. Sydney Druckman carried out the duties of best man, ably assisted by Mr. Gerald Druckman.

A large gathering was present at the subsequent reception.

The Rev. J. Slomovitz has been appointed by the Railway Administration as Concession Registrar for Jewish Ministers in the Free State in place of the late Rev. Z Lawrence of Bloemfontein.

On Thursday, November 12, at 7 p.m., at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, the marriage will take place of Miss Bertha Jackson to Mr. Benno Tennen. The reception will be held at "Stephanie," High Street, Berea.

The engagement is announced of Helen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kotzen, to David Palmer, both of Johannesburg.

The engagement is announced of Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Jaffit, of Marquard, to Isaac Levy of Van Ryn Estates and of the firm of Levy Brothers of Brakpan and Benoni, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Levy, of Brakpan.

FRAM—KALMEK.

The marriage took place on Sunday evening last at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue of Miss Bessie Fram, youngest daughter of Mrs. S. Katz and the late Mr. S. Fram to Mr. Maurice Kalmek, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kalmek. Chief Rabbi, Dr. J. L. Landau officiated at the ceremony.

The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. S. Katz, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Fram and Mr. and Mrs. S. Kalmek. Messrs. J. Kalmek, S. Sewitz, P. Kramer and N. Kramer acted as pole holders while the groomsmen were Messrs. B. J. Shub, M. Shein and S. Wolpert.

The bride was attended by Miss Rae Fram as maid-of-honour and the Misses Rae and Lily Joffe and Rose Shub as bridesmaids. The flower girl was little Miss Selma Kalmek and the page boy, Master Michael Kalmek. The duties of best man were ably carried out by Mr. J. L. Sacke.

A reception was subsequently held at the City Hall at which over 1,000 people representative of Johannesburg Jewry, were present.

OSKAR SHUMSKY COMING.

The coming to South Africa of the violinist, Oskar Shumsky, a thirteen-year-old prodigy, with a big name in the United States, is already exciting much interest. He will play in the City Hall, Johannesburg, on November 8, 12 and 15. He holds much the same position in the violin world that Cherkassky holds among young pianists. He studied with the late Leopold Auer.
