

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Chief Rabbi Dr. J. L. Landau will leave Johannesburg to-morrow evening for the Cape to spend a month's holiday at Muizenberg, accompanied by Mrs. Landau.

The marriage will take place at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue on January 31 of Miss Rose Urman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Urman and Mr. Joseph Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Erdman of 14, Muller Street, Yeoville, are being congratulated on the birth of a son on Tuesday, the 24th inst.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. L. Bloch of Potchefstroom on the birth of a son on Friday last.

Mr. S. Katzen and Dr. Deborah Katzen are sailing to-day from Capetown on the "Warwick Castle" for England. They will spend about six months in England and on the Continent.

The marriage of Freda, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Banet of Bulawayo, to Lionel, youngest son of Mr. E. and the late Mrs. Harris of Port Elizabeth, will be solemnised at the Bulawayo Synagogue, on Sunday, 29th January at 10.30 a.m.

Mr. Harold Ginsberg, B.A., of Rhodes University College, Grahamstown, Cape, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Ginsberg, of Summerstrand, Port Elizabeth, has been successful in obtaining his LL.B. Degree.

The marriage of Miss Thelma Joffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Joffe to Mr. Isaie Joseph, son of Mr. R. Kagan and the late Mrs. P. Kagan, will be celebrated at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue on Sunday, 5th February at 7 p.m. A reception will subsequently be held at the Selborne Hall at 8 p.m.

Dr. Isaac Schapera, formerly connected with the Bantu Studies Department of the Witwatersrand University and now of the Cape-town University, contributes an interesting and original article on "A Native Lion Hunt in the Kalahari Desert" to the latest issue of "Man," the monthly organ of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland.

A PRETORIA "AT HOME."

The next "At Home" of the Pretoria Women's Zionist League will be held on Tuesday the 7th February, at 3 p.m. in the Memorial Hall, Beatrix Street, Pretoria. The Rev. Mr. M. Rosenberg will deliver an address on "Romance in the Midrash." Dancing items will be given by Miss M. Poswolsky's pupils.

A Bialik Evening.

THE eighty-eighth meeting of the Palestine Club will be held on February 4th at the residence of Mrs. R. E. Jaff, 39 Observatory Avenue, Observatory. In view of the sixtieth birthday of Chaim Nachman Bialik and in response to the appeal of the League of Hebrew writers, the evening will be devoted in honour of the great Hebrew poet. Mr. D. Mierowsky will speak on Bialik and also give excerpts from his work.

ISADOR EPSTEIN RESUMES TEACHING.

Isador Epstein, the artist-teacher, one of London's leading pedagogues, now resident in Johannesburg, has returned to town and resumed his teaching. The series of pupil's concerts (four in all) he gave before the summer vacation were a great success, and so popular have they become, that "House Full" at each concert was the order of things. Many people present said "such pianoforte playing from students has never been heard in Johannesburg." These interesting concerts are given to enable students to gain platform experience.

A BENONI PICNIC.

Visitors from all parts of the Reef and Johannesburg will attend the annual picnic of the United Hebrew Institutions of Benoni at the Van Ryn plantation on February 5. Sports have been arranged for the children, and a band will be in attendance. A dance will be held in the Hebrew Hall, Benoni, in the evening.

The committee of the United Hebrew Institutions is responsible for the arrangements, and a special committee consisting of Messrs. R. Miller, J. Fredman, Ashman, C. Sacks, M. E. Lurie, Dr. D. Morrison and Dr. I. Stein have the sports arrangements in hand. The women of the Zionist Society, under Mrs. A. A. Lomey, will be responsible for the refreshments.

FREEDMAN—BROOKSTONE.

The marriage of Miss R. Freedman of Randfontein to Mr. M. Brookstone of Johannesburg was solemnised on Sunday, the 15th inst., at the Randfontein Synagogue. The Rev. J. Shapiro officiated and the unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. M. Wolberg and Mr. and Mrs. D. Brookstone. The duties of best man were ably carried out by Mr. C. Brookstone (Johannesburg) assisted by Mr. M. Freedman.

The bride was attended by Miss S. Freedman as maid of honour and the Misses L. Brookstone and D. Freedman as bridesmaids. The pole holders were the Messrs. L. M. and I. Freedman and Mr. Hirshon (Johannesburg). A reception was subsequently held at the residence of Mrs. I. Freedman, Park Street South, Randfontein, where a large number of guests gathered to congratulate the bride and bridegroom. The toast of the happy couple was proposed by the Rev. Shapiro.

A JEWISH BOARDING SCHOOL.

JEWISH parents, interested in having their boys and girls educated in a Jewish atmosphere, are informed that Mr. J. Nieman, M.A. (late of the Johannesburg Normal College), has opened the Meyerton College, situated at Meyerton, Transvaal. Here, everything—food, atmosphere and education—is of a Jewish character.

The college is situated thirty miles from Johannesburg in an ideal spot. The fees are moderate. Hebrew education is given free and instruction and education are of the highest standard. The head of the College is a highly qualified South African teacher with varied experience in primary, high school and post-high school educational work. Mr. Nieman will gladly give further particulars to any Jewish parent interested in the college.

BEREA JUDEAN SOCIETY.

The half-yearly dance of the above Society will be held at the residence of Mrs. Ch. Poliakovsky, 27, Upper Ross Street, (Phone Cent. 6541), on the 4th February, 1933, instead of the 28th January as hitherto arranged. Tickets can be obtained at the above address and from the committee.

HEBREW SPEAKING CIRCLE (Johannesburg).

Under the auspices of the above Circle a lecture will be delivered by Mr. B. Goldberg on Saturday the 28th inst. at the Hebrew High School at 8.15 p.m.

The engagement is announced of Leah, only daughter of Mr. M. Godlin and late Mrs. A. Godlin, of Judith Paarl, to Israel Barnett Stein, son of Mrs. C. Stein and the late Solomon Stein, of Johannesburg.

ROSEN—LEVITT.

On Sunday the 15 inst. the marriage of Ann, elder daughter of Mrs. Levitt and the late D. Levitt, to Mr. Emile Rosen, elder son of Mrs. Rosen and the late Mr. J. Rosen, took place in the Yeoville Synagogue.

The ceremony was performed by Chief Rabbi, Dr. J. L. Landau, and the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Harry Levitt.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Marian Rosen and Miss Rose Levitt. The two little flower girls were Jacqueline and Jill Rosen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Levinson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Klisset acted as unterfuhrers, and the pole-holders were Mr. B. Livingstone, Mr. Pat Raphaely, Mr. M. Levitt and Mr. B. Levitt. Mr. Buller Rosen acted as best man.

A reception was held later in the Ambassadors Tea Room, where the bride's mother received the guests.
