In East London

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Zionist Association.

A successful social evening was held by the Zionist Association on the 19th inst. in the Communal Hall. Mr. Meyer Hertz, president, was in the chair. He referred to the tragic death of the late Dr. Arlosoroff, and the large audience rose in respect for a few moments.

An interesting mixed programme was presented. Apart from semi-sacred music by the choir under the baton of Rev. Altshuler, the musical items which were to have been rendered were omitted on account of the sad news referred to by the Chairman.

Mr. Addleson delivered an address dealing with the economic structure of German Jewry and gave relevant statistics of their occupations, trades and professions, showing how the Hitlerist decrees were likely to affect these.

The Chairman gave a Yiddish reading from Shalom

Aleichem, and the programme was completed by a Yiddish sketch. A collection in aid of the National Fund was taken.

On the occasion of the departure of Mrs. A. J. Abelman, who is leaving East London for a certain period, a pleasant function was given by Mrs. B. Behr (vice-president of the Ladies' Benevolent Society) at her residence on the 15th ult.

Ladies' Benevolent Society.

Mrs. Abelman, who has been president of the local Jewish Ladies' Benevolent Society, president of the Jewish Scout Troop Committee and an active member of the Ladies' Zionist Society, was presented with a handbag as a token of affection and esteem. The president of the Ladies' Zionist Society, Mrs. Sapire, proposed a vote of thanks to the hostess for her hospitality.
