INTERESTING EVENT ON TUESDAY NEXT.

A COOKERY demonstration under the auspices of the Parktown-Parkview branches of the Women's Zionist League, to which the Mayoress, Mrs. M. Freeman, has graciously consented to give her patronage, will take place on Tuesday next, 27th inst., at the Selborne Hall, Johannesburg, at 2.30 p.m. Those attending this novel function, which has been arranged for the National Fund, are assured of an interesting and entertaining afternoon.

Mrs. Sylvia Steele, A.R.C.M., will render musical items.

The demonstrators are Mrs. Carl Friedlander, who is giving some Palestinian and Jewish cookery and confectionery in her section, while Miss Reynolds (by courtesy of the "Star") has fruit cocktails and cocktail savouries on her list. Miss Hart, of Messrs. Polliacks, has selected ice-creams and cold and hot puddings for her department.

A special feature will be a recipe booklet obtainable at the demonstration.

Tickets are 2s. each and can be had from Messrs. Polliacks or at the door.

FANCY DRESS BALL.

In Aid of Jewish Ladies' Benevolent Society

A DANCE, which promises to be an outstanding success, has been arranged by the City Jewish Ladies' Benevolent Society to take place at the Selborne Hall on Wednesday evening, December 5, from 8 till 12. Fancy dress is optional, and prizes will be given for the best costume. In the course of the evening pupils of the Conmee-Stickells Studio will give exhibitions of dancing.

The City Jewish Ladies' Benevolent Society has been in existence for the past twelve years, and arrangements for the dance are in the hands of a most energetic committee. Edgar Adelar's Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Johnny Jacobs, will be in attendance. Tickets may be obtained from the hon. secretary, Mr. R. Lewenthal, Box 4300, Johannesburg. Phone 3015 Cent.
