Exhibition of Paintings by Mr. D. Koenig

To-morrow afternoon an exhibition of paintings by Mr. D. Koenig will be opened at the residence of Mrs. F. Feldman, "Ny-Hame," corner Central and Fourth Avenue, Houghton.

The exhibition will be open to the public both to-morrow and Sunday (11th inst.) afternoons, from 3—6 p.m.

This exhibition should attract wide interest among art lovers in the city. Mr. Koenig is a Hungarian Jewish artist who came to this country nearly six years ago and who has been doing notable work here. His painting is characterised by freshness and sensitivity, and shows a vigorous style.

The exhibition will be opened at 3 p.m. by Mr. Edgar Bernstein.

On Thursday next (April 15), the Johannesburg Symphony Society will hold its 24th concert in the Wanderers Hall. "THREE SMART GIRLS" AT THE COLOSSEUM.

"Three Smart Girls" is the current attraction at the Colosseum Theatre. The three girls in question are the three daughters of a divorced millionaire, who try to prevent their father from marrying a gold-digger. Deanna Durbin, the amazing new singing star, plays the part of one of the daughters and the rest of the cast includes Binnie Barnes, Charles Winninger, Alice Brady, Nan Grey and Barbara Reed. The first half of the programme is good, and Charles Manning and the Colosseum Orchestra continue to please.
