

How often have you worried whether dainty undies could be safely washed? They can be cleansed—easily and without risk of damage—with mild, gentle LUX. Lux washes without rubbing, you see. Its wonderful, pure lather gently coaxes out the dirt. Not a single fine thread is injured, not a delicate colour faded. With LUX, crepe-de-chine stays soft as new, lace keeps its delicacy, and silk stays new-looking... longer. Your precious undies deserve safe Lux care. Make up your mind to use Lux—and only Lux, for all your delicate cleansing.

"THE LAST OF MRS. CHEYNEY" AT THE METRO.

The Metro Theatre's offering for this week is a sophisticated comedy telling of the amusing adventures of an American widow (Joan Crawford) who is accepted in London society. Robert Montgomery (as a young lord who falls in love with her) and William Powell (as the butler) give Miss Crawford excellent support and the rest of the cast includes many well-known artists. The supporting programme is of interest and includes a travel talk by James Fitzpatrick entitled "Picturesque South Africa."

Johannesburg Symphony Society

The 25th concert of the J.S.S. will be held at the Wanderers on Thursday, 24th inst., at which a programme of unusual variety will be presented. Mozart's G Minor Symphony, Berlioz's rarely heard excerpts from "La Damnation de Faust," Sibelius' "Finlandia," and the dances from Borodin's "Prince Igor" will be performed by the Orchestra of 60 under the baton of Joseph Traunek. Booking is open at Mackays.

MADELEINE CARROL IN "THE CASE OF MRS. AMES."

"The Case Against Mrs. Ames"—at the Colosseum Theatre this week—is an exciting, sensational and fast-moving newspaper story with Madeleine Carrol and George Brent in the leading roles. As Mrs. Ames, who is accused of murdering her husband, Madeleine Carrol gives a fine piece of emotional acting. Charles Manning continues to please, and pictures of the Derby are included in the supporting programme.

Johannesburg Women's Zionist League

Mayfair Branch.—"The Moral and Political Aspects of Revisionism" was the subject of an interesting address delivered by Miss Ben Yakob at a large and representative gathering held at the home of Mrs. S. Ostroff on the 3rd inst.

Miss Ben Yakob outlined the aims of the New Revisionist movement and explained the General Zionists' attitude towards such aims. Mrs. S. Ostroff acted as chairlady in the absence of Mrs. A. R. Bloch.

Mrs. Patley presented tree certificates to Mrs. L. Raff and Mrs. R. Bloch in appreciation of this service to the branch. Certificates were also presented to the infant sons of Mrs. Price and Mrs. J. Symons.

Mrs. I. Freed proposed a vote of thanks to Miss Ben Yakob, Mrs. Patley and to the hostess, for a most interesting afternoon.

Parkview-Westcliff Branch. — A literary afternoon has been arranged for Wednesday, the 23rd inst., at the residence of Mrs. Hossy, cor. Ennis Road and Tyrone Avenue, Parkview. Mr. A. Abrahamson, who has recently returned from a trip to Palestine, will lecture. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Observatory Branch.—The Observatory reading circle held a successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Levy on the 9th inst.

Miss Ben Yakob, previous to her departure for Eretz Israel, gave an interesting address, or, as she preferred to put it, a farewell message.

A vote of thanks to the speakers was proposed by Mrs. Hersch. Mrs. Morris Kentridge presided.

Berea Branch.—A pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies of this branch when Mrs. Udwin gave a farewell party prior to her departure for Europe.

Mrs. Dickman sang delightfully, accompanied by Miss Margie Lazer, who later played piano soli. Mrs. Anna Romain-Hoffman gave a monologue to the music of "Moonlight Sonata," provided by Miss Roslyn Myersen and Miss Sonia Orkin. Later Mrs. Romain-Hoffman and Mrs. Gundle did a very entertaining duologue.

Mrs. B. Patley thanked the artists and the chairman, Mrs. Morris Kentridge, on behalf of the branch, presented Mrs. Udwin with a beautiful wristlet watch.

Saxonwold Branch.—A symposium on the subject of "Women's Place in World Progress To-day," will be held on Tuesday, the 29th inst., at 3 p.m., at the residence of Mrs. S. Denton, 45 8th Street, Lower Houghton. The subject will be debated from the following aspects: Education, by Rosa Van Gelderen; Arts, by Dora Sowden; Social Welfare, by Irene Geffen; Science, by Gertrude Ordman; and Pioneer Work, by Carmel Phillips.

Conveyance can be arranged for those who require same by phoning Mrs. Myer, 44-2639. Branches of the league are asked to co-operate by attending this ambitious symposium.
