

Philanthropic Ball.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

A combination of dark and light blue was the colour-scheme of the decorations at the Annual Philanthropic Ball held at the City Hall on Wednesday evening in aid of the Board of Guardians. Streamers of these colours were suspended from the end to the centre of the ceiling, and large banners, arranged in a check design in both shades of blue, were hung from the bays.

There was a very large gathering present, and the function proved a very enjoyable one. The music was supplied by Toby Marks and his Orchestra. An excellent sit-down supper was served and at midnight "hot dogs" and rolls were served in the ballroom. During the evening a clever interlude was staged by Betty Brown and her troupe of tap-dancers, and Miss Brown herself gave a spectacular exhibition of acrobatic dancing.

Mrs. E. Lewis, the able convenor of the Ball Committee, and her energetic band of helpers are to be congratulated on a very successful function which should be of great benefit to an institution badly in need of financial assistance.

Barmitzvah at Worcester.

ABRAHAM WILK.

The Barmitzvah was celebrated last Saturday of Abraham George, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wilk, of Worcester, who read a portion of the Law at the Worcester Synagogue.

On Sunday afternoon a reception in honour of the occasion was held in the Zionist Hall at Worcester, and was attended by an exceedingly large gathering among whom were guests from Worcester and the surrounding districts, and even from Cape Town, for Mr. and Mrs. Wilk are two of the best-known and most respected Jewish personalities in the Western Province.

Many toasts were proposed during the afternoon, Mr. I. J. Sennett presiding. Those who spoke, congratulating the Barmitzvah and his parents on this happy occasion and referring to the public services—and particularly the outstanding Zionist work—Mr. Wilk had always performed, were: Messrs. A. Volks, J. Friedman, Rev. Stein, J. E. Krige, M.P., Jack Brown, Dr. J. Lange, Dr. Goss, Mrs. Goss, Messrs. Neuman (Bredas-dorp), Morris Wilk (Claremont), I. Abrahamson (Cape Town), L. Sacks, L. Osrin, M. Rabinowitz and J. Rabinowitz.

The Barmitzvah and his father suitably responded. During the afternoon a collection was carried out in order to have the name of the Barmitzvah inscribed in the Golden Book.

In the evening a dance was held in which a large gathering participated.
