THE PLAZA.

"The Night of June 13th."

The vogue for all-star casts in movies continues. "The Night of June 13th." drama of intrigue in a large-city suburb, which comes to the Plaza Theatre on Monday next, is the latest effort out of Hollywood to boast a group of big names in its cast. Clive Brook, Lila Lee, Charlie Ruggles, Gene Raymond, Frances Dee, Mary Boland and Adrienne Allen have the leading roles.

Brook, a major in the English Army during the World War, went on the stage in London in 1919, and scored a decided success. He has been in pictures for several years.

Miss Lee, who retired from pictures two years ago because of illness, is taking up the road to stardom on the point at which her health forced her to abandon it temporarily. Ruggles, stage favourite of many years standing, has been a movie idol ever since he played in "Gentlemen of the Press."

Raymond, a sensation in the stage production "Young Sinners," and numerous others, has been duplicating his success for the past year in the movies. Miss Boland, a Broadway favourite, has just finished work in the stage productions, "Face the Music," and "The Vinegar Tree."

Miss Dee and Miss Allen, both of whose movie careers have been brief, have already won fame in films.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

Three Big Attractions.

The big film attraction at the Opera House to-day and to-morrow is "Cavalcade" with Clive Brook and Diana Wyngard in leading parts. There must be many who are waiting to see this magnificent film, many who will see it at least a second time.

On Monday the Jessie Matthews picture "Evergreen" will be transferred from the Alhambra. Judging from the capacity houses this week, Cape Town certainly likes this film.

THE ROYAL.

"Fraternally Yours."

When two wife-bedevelled husbands, Laurel and Hardy, find that they must attend their lodge convention in Chicago, despite the strenuous objection of Hardy's wife, the latter invents a fictitious illness. With the assistance of a friendly horse doctor, who poses as an ethical physician, a trip to Hawaii is prescribed as a sure cure with the pair leaving for Chicago instead.

The resultant story-telling brings about a series of embarrassing situations which provides the greatest scope for the two funsters.

Capetown Orchestra Activities.

To-morrow evening in the City Hall the Cape Town Orchestra will be augmented to eighty performers by members of the Cape Town Amateur Orchestral Society, which has recently been taken over by the Musical Director. The items for performance are the Overture "Raymond" (Thomas), "Ruy Blas" (Mendelssohn), "Malaguenda" (Moszkowski), 1st Movement from the Scotch Symphony (Mendelssohn), March "Hongroise" (Berlioz), Petite Suite de Concert (Coleridge Taylor). The soloist will be Madame Rosita Silvestri who will be heard in operatic arias, and Sigrig Wallender who will sing some negro melodies.
