Capetown Orchestra Activities.

The solist at the City Hall to-morrow evening will be Signor Ernesto Fumagalli, the great Italian bass singer, who is at present in Cape Town, having arrived recently from Italy. He will be heard in operatic arias, from the "Barber of Seville" (Rossini) and "Simon Boccanegra" (Verdi). Orchestral items will include the Selection "Rigoletto" (Verdi), Soldier's Chorus from "Faust" (Gounod), Meditation from Thais (Massenet), Solo Violin Alfred Gibbs, and the Ride of the Valkyrie (Wagner).

On Sunday evening the Orchestra will perform in the City Hall at 8.30 p.m., when a delightful programme of music will be given. Mr. Monya Mindlin will be heard in the Mozart Violin Concerto in A Major and George Dimmack will play a cornet solo. Popular orchestral selections will be played by the Orchestra.

Owing to the Orchestra playing for the Press Conference at the University on Monday evening there will not be a concert in the Municipal Gardens.

The Orchestra will however play in the Muizenberg Pavilion on Wednesday evening next when a Gilbert and Sullivan programme will be given.
