The Famous Nelson Trio

in conjunction with the Orchestra.

Tickets at Darter's.

Final Appearance of Nelson Trio.

The Nelson Trio who have been touring various centres of the Western Province will make their final appearance in Cape Town on Sunday night, 11th inst., when they will appear at the City Hall with the Cape Town Orchestra. They will play two concertos, and by special request they will give a second performance of the Triple Beethoven Concerto.

Miss Zara Nelson, the cellist and youngest of the Trio, will play Tchaikowski's "Variation on a theme Rococo."

Great interest is also being displayed in musical circles in the concert which the Trio will give in the Stellenbosch Conservatorium on August 15th.

THE PLAZA.

"Bolero," showing at the Plaza this week, combines a good story with some excellent dancing such as can be expected only from such fine artists as George Raft, Carole Lombard and Sally Rand.

The story is that of a struggling young coal worker who in his search for fame as a dancer sacrifices everything and everything ruthlessly.

There is a magnificent dramatic climax which leaves a deep impression.

The supporting programme is excellent.

THE ALHAMBRA.

"Bulldog Jack."

"Bulldog Jack" is gay, thrilling adventure. It is real entertainment. The film is the featured attraction at the Alhambra next week. It presents Jack Hulbert, he of the triumphant grin and the cheery demeanour, in an entirely new type of role, a mixture of heroics and comedy, a role which fits him like a glove, undeniably the best this talented comedian of many big hits has yet put over. To see Jack as an amateur sleuth taking over a case from Bulldog Drummond, plumbing the mystery; fighting the criminals; rescuing the heroine and falling in love with her, is to witness the funniest of Hulbert comedies with a story which also packs genuine thrills.

THE ROYAL.

"Sanders of the River."

There are few people who have not, at some time or other, read the famous books by the late Edgar Wallace dealing with the adventures of the great Sanders and his henchmen. Next week we are privileged to show the film production by Alexander Korda for London Films, and the title of the first book of the series "Sanders of the River." Leslie Banks makes his appearance at the Royal in the title role and others in the film are Paul Robeson, the famous actor singer and Nina Mae McKinney. Most of the picture was photographed in the heart of Africa.
