A Fine Gesture.

In the stress of the Keren Hayesod Campaign the fine public spirit of individual workers is often overlooked. A noteworthy example of this is the action of Mr. J. J. Wilk, of Worcester, who at considerable personal inconvenience, drove Mr. Baruch Zuckerman in his own car to Oudtshoorn where the Campaign was launched on the Monday night and thence on Tuesday to Cape Town which they reached in time for Mr. Zuckerman to address the Zionist conversazione in the evening.
