BENNO MOISEIWITSCH.

Benno Moiseiwitsch.

The news that Moiseiwitsch is to give an entire Chopin Recital at the City Hall on July 28th has created a stir amongst music lovers in Cape Town.

The plan is filling rapidly, for a recital of Chopin's works by so great an artist is a unique event. Included in the programme will be the following works: Twelve Preludes, six studies, three noctures, B Minor and C Sharp Major Scherzo, Ballade in G Minor, Fantasie Impromptu; Barcarolle Berceuse, etc.

The final and farewell concert before Moiseiwitsch's departure for England on August 4th, will take place in conjunction with the Cape Town Orchestra on July 30th.

A great treat is also in store for Stellenbosch, where Moiseiwitsch will give a recital on Monday, 27th inst., at the Conservatorium Hall, with an entirely new programme:

THE PLAZA.

"Small Town Girl," to be seen at the Plaza Theatre beginning on Monday is heralded as one of the new year's more important photoplays. The screen play was written by John Lee Mahin and Edith Fitzgerald. In the supporting cast appear Binnie Barnes, Lewis Stone, Andy Devine, Elizabeth Patterson, Frank Craven, James Stewart, Douglas Fowley and Isabel Jewell. The new picture marks Robert Taylor's first stellar role since his recent hits in "Magnificent Obsession" and "Broadway Melody of 1936."
