* * * *

Mrs. S. I. Baigel has been co-opted as vice-chairlady.

The South Peninsula Guild.

The opening function of the Guild was held at the Talmud Torah Hall, Muizenberg, on Wednesday evening, 28th April. Despite counter-attractions there was a fair-sized gathering, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

The artists who contributed to the evening's entertainment were Mrs. L. Herbstein (celloist), Mr. Arnold Lorie (violinist) and Mr. Phineas Lewis (pianist), Miss Joan Steytler (singer) and Miss Z. Glazer, pupil of the Kirsch Studio.

Advocate J. Herbstein gave a forceful address, which, though depressing in its portrayal of the problems of youth, particularly Jewish youth, and condemnatory in his opinion of young South African Jews, was very well received. In passing a vote of thanks to Advocate Herbstein, Mr. M. Sacks remarked that this speech had had the desired effect—namely, to make us think for ourselves.

Refreshments and dancing completed the evening.

A number of members were enrolled.

A Barmitzvah Celebration.
