

IN AND AROUND THE PENINSULA

Bnoth Zion Association.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Tuesday, 4th inst. when members of the Observatory-Mowbray Branch met at the residence of Mrs. H. Fox, Morley Road, Observatory.

Mr. M. Wolozinsky, lecturer in Hebrew at the Cape Town University, delivered an address on "Spiritual Zionism," comparing and contrasting it with "Political Zionism." The subject was very well treated and proved both instructive and interesting.

Mrs. Glaser from the Central Branch also spoke.

Miss Raie Stone delighted the gathering with humorous character sketches, and Miss Yutar very ably entertained at the piano.

A well-attended meeting of members of branch committees was held on 4th May in the Zionist Hall for the purpose of discussing the present Zionist situation in South Africa.

Mrs. R. Movsovic presided and referred to the importance of 1937 as a Congress year and the necessity for all to understand the situation which has arisen owing to Mr. Jabotinsky's attempt to gain support for the N.Z.O.

Miss M. Oblowitz in an interesting address traced the history of the Zionist Organisation. She stressed the importance of the National Fund, to which every Jew and Jewesses should contribute. She analysed the aims and objects of the N.Z.O. and showed how Mr. Jabotinsky had left the Organisation when he could not obtain what he desired. The aggressive Revisionist policy was deprecated and the methods employed by this party in attempting to break down the Organisation was denounced.

A discussion followed in which Mesdames Cohen, Segal and Sloman participated.
