Jascha Heifetz Entertained

Largely Attended Luncheon at Jewish Guild.

THE Jewish community on the Rand was well represented at the luncheon given on Tuesday by the Jewish Guild in honour of the famous violinist, Jascha Heifetz and his accompanist, Isidor Achron.

Advocate B. A. Ettlinger presided (in the unavoidable absence through indisposition of Mr. Barnett, the President of the institution). The Chairman said the visit to South Africa of Heifetz was an event in musical history which would be long remembered. He assured both Achron and Heifetz, that the Jewish community in this country were proud of their great musical accomplishment.

In reply, Mr. Heifetz said that he had looked forward to his visit to South Africa. The enthusiastic reception accorded to him and to Mr. Achron was most gratifying.

"I expect to visit Palestine in two years' time," added Mr. Heifetz, "and they will be asking me all about you as you here have been asking me all about them. I am delighted that I shall be in the position to give them a splendid account of the Jewish community of South Africa."
