"HAPPINESS AHEAD" AT THE PLAZA

Warner Bros. have produced yet another show, full of fun and music in "Happiness Ahead" showing at the Plaza Theatre this week. Dick Powell of "Twenty Million Sweethearts" fame, plays a leading role and a new screen find, Josephine Hutchinson, contributes her histrionic ability to this sparkling picture. The supporting programme includes interesting news reels, a comedy short and music on the Wurlitzer.

MR. LEONID BIRSEN

The brilliant violinist, Mr. Leonid Birsén, who for some time has been in Rhodesia has now returned to Johannesburg, where he has taken up permanent residence. Recently Mr. Birsén played a concerto with the A.B.C. Concert Orchestra over the wireless and made a deep impression. He showed the possession of fine technical ability and was able to cope well with the difficult work.

"FORSAKING ALL OTHERS" AT THE METRO

Three outstanding stars, Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, and Robert Montgomery, who while they have played in teams, have never appeared together, are now to be seen in "Forsaking All Others" at the Metro Theatre this week. Supporting roles are played by Billie Burke, Charles Butterworth, Frances Drake and Rosalind Russell. This picture is a triumph for its three brilliant stars and will be thoroughly enjoyed by all who make a point of seeing it.

GUNDLE—PATLEY.

Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Patley, was married on Tuesday evening the 4th inst., to Mr. Gerald S. Gundle, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Gundle. The Chief Rabbi, the Rev. Dr. J. L. Landau, assisted by Cantor S. Inspektor, performed the ceremony, which took place in the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, which had been beautifully decorated by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilfred Patley, and by Mrs. Sonnie Gordon, with flowers from their own gardens.

The bride was attended by a maid of honour, Miss Madge Marks, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Beatrice and Lilian Treisman, Leah Goodman and Gertrude Sand.

Mr. Fred Goodman was the best man and the groomsmen were Mr. George Orkin. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. Patley, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Kaumheimer.

The pole holders were Messrs. Harold Gill, Jack Weil, Hugh Lezard, and Cecil Loewenstein.

The ceremony was followed by dinner at the Carlton Hotel, which was attended by some of the intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. George First proposed the toast of the bride and the bridegroom.
