CANTOR JOSEPH ADLER.

There recently arrived in this country Cantor Joseph Adler, a well-known chazan who has occupied posts in synagogues in Germany, Poland and England. During the recent High Festivals, Cantor Adler conducted the services at the Adath-Israel Synagogue in Pretoria and demonstrated the possession of a fine lyric tenor voice and able diction. Cantor Adler is now in Johannesburg and hopes to conduct services at one of the local synagogues.

MISS ESTHER LUTRIN.

Miss Esther Lutrin, the well-known elocutionist of Durban, is now in Johannesburg, where she is taking up permanent residence and is opening up a studio.

Miss Lutrin has a fine reputation as an actress and expert elocutionist. She has produced many plays in aid of charity and recently successfully produced a play of Jewish interest, "The Star of Judah," at the Durban Jewish Club. She hopes at an early opportunity to be responsible for a theatrical production in Johannesburg.

ROSENGARTEN—COHEN.

A charming wedding took place at the Roeland Street Synagogue on the 14th inst., when Isobel (Billy) daughter of Mrs. M. Cohen and the late Mr. Marks Cohen, of Capetown, was married to Joseph (Joe), son of Mrs. F. Rosengarten and the late Mr. M. Rosengarten, of Johannesburg.

Dr. D. Cohen, of Warmbaths (brother of the bride) gave the bride away. The best man was Mr. I. Cohen (brother of the bride), and the unterfuhrers were Mrs. M. Cohen (mother of the bride), Mrs. F. Rosengarten (mother of the bridegroom), and Mr. and Mrs. M. Goldblatt (brother-in-law and sister of the bride). The only attendant was little Rhona Goldblatt. The toast of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Adv. M. Alexander, M.P., and that of the parents by Mr. J. Chalmers, M.P. The officiating reverends were Rev. S. Kugel, assisted by Rabbi Mirvish and Rev. Friedgut.
