Levin—Frank

The marriage took place on Sunday afternoon last, at the Wolmarans Street Synagogue, Johannesburg, of Dorothy, eldest daughter of Councillor and Mrs. J. Frank, of Capetown, to Dr. Joseph Levin, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Levin.

Chief Rabbi, Dr. J. L. Landau, officiated. The unterfuhrers were the parents of the bride and bridegroom, and the poleholders Messrs. Jack Levin, H. Levin, Philip Port and A. Simpson. The duties of the best man were carried out by Mr. Max Frank, brother of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Norma Miller, Miss Gay Simpson, and the Misses Beatrice and Mavis Frank, and the flower girls were little Rhona Slot and Esther Simpson.

A largely attended reception was held in a huge marquee erected at the home of the parents of the bride at "Craigmonie," Lower Houghton. The toast of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Chief Rabbi Dr. J. L. Landau, and suitably responded to by the bridegroom. The toast of the parents of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by Adv. M. Alexander, K.C., M.P., and this was replied to by Councillor Frank.

Annual Ball for Charity

JEWISH LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

On Wednesday evening, at the City Hall, Johannesburg, the annual ball in aid of the funds of the City Jewish Ladies' Benevolent Society will take place. Charlie Berman and his personal band will provide the music and a large number of guests are expected. The society carries out splendid work on behalf of the poor, and the committee trusts that the annual function will be well and generously supported.
