FROM TOWN & COUNTRY

From Our Own Correspondents.

Bellville, Parow and Durbanville

A social was held on Sunday evening, the 29th ult., in the Communal Hall, under the auspices of the Bellville, Parow and Durbanville Ladies' Zionist Society. The speaker, Mr. M. Wolozinsky, M.A., was introduced by the chairlady, and gave an interesting address on the "Philosophy of the Hebrew National Revival." Recitations were rendered by Clara Medman, Lena Stander, Thelma Daitsh and Rachel Leiserovitz.

Mr. Wolozinsky spoke in Yiddish on the Keren Kayemeth. Mrs. B. Berold proposed a vote of thanks to the lecturer and the artists.

Bethlehem

The sum of £5 has been cleared by Mr. S. Jankelowitz from the orphanage box at the residence of Mr. Z. Jankelowitz, and that amount has been received with thanks by the South African Jewish Orphanage.

Kirkwood

A meeting of the Kirkwood Zionist Society was held on Sunday, 25th August, at the residence of Mrs. Glatt. The chairman, Mr. David Aires, asked all present to rise as a token of respect to the late Mr. L. Lewis, a foundation member of the society, who had recently died.

An inspiring address was delivered by Rev. Altshuler pleading for unity in Zionism. A recitation by Master Leon Joffe was greatly appreciated.

Master David Altshuler's song revealed him to be in possession of a promising tenor voice. The chairman took the opportunity of congratulating Miss L. Thal, an ex-secretary of the society, on her engagement.

The meeting concluded with the singing of Hatikvah after Mr. Aires had thanked the hostess for her kindly hospitality and also all those who had contributed towards the success of the meeting.

Middelburg (Transvaal)

Mrs. M. Birman, hon. collector of the local branch of the S.A. Jewish Orphanage, has forwarded to that institution the sum of £2 2s. 6d., being collection of subscriptions from local members.

Oudtshoorn

Mrs. (Dr.) Steenkamp, of Capetown, was the lecturer at an interesting meeting of local Zionists at which the visitor spoke on her impressions of her recent visit to Palestine. The address was delivered at the home of Mrs. F. Luntz on the 3rd inst. Miss Kussell, the president of the Herzl Ladies' Zionist Society, presided over a large gathering. The audience thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated this talk, which revealed a clear understanding on the part of the lecturer of the aims which motivated Zionist work in Palestine.

Miss A. Sieff proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker and to Mrs.

Luntz, the hostess. Mr. R. Rollnick and Mr. I. J. Kahn associated themselves in paying tribute to Mrs. Steenkamp.

The monthly meeting of the Herzl Ladies' Zionist Society was held at the residence of Miss A. Sieff, at which there was a good attendance. The annual flower sale in aid of the Jewish National Fund was discussed, and it was decided to hold same a week after the local horticultural show.

A successful and well-attended card evening was held at the Central Hotel on the 22nd ult. The thanks of the committee are due to Mr. and Mrs. Abel, for the use of the hotel.

An enjoyable social afternoon took place in the Hebrew School hall on the 29th ult. There was a good attendance. Miss B. Osry read extracts from the report of the Conference recently held at Kimberley. Two Yiddish poems, rendered by Miss Sarah Aisen, and accompanied by Miss Annie Sieff, were greatly enjoyed.

A play-reading followed of "Holding Aloof," by David Dainow. The following ladies took part: Alfred Dickson, Miss Annie Sieff; Sara Dickson, Mrs. Sol Morris; Clara, Mrs. M. Goldberg; Horace, Miss Therese Horwitz; Bartles, Mrs. A. Abel; Adolph Cohn, Mrs. A. Gillis; Leslie Devis, Mrs. J. Lazarus; Arthur Rotelstein and Abraham Wertheim, Mrs. I. Medintz; Sir Reginald Westingham, Miss Ellen Maltz; Isaac Rosengart, Mrs. J. Maze; His Excellency, the Administrator, Mrs. J. Skalne.

The play was well rendered by the cast, and credit is due to the society for its enterprise.
