A NEW FEATURE AT THE COLOSSEUM.

The "March of Times" series of news films, giving short and vivid descriptions of places, people and events, accompanied by an illuminating commentary, has been extremely popular in America and England for some time. Now it has come to South Africa.

The first of the series, which will be shown at the Colosseum shortly, and for a week every month to follow, was shown to a special gathering of press representatives this week. It consisted of three items: "Youth in Camps," "Oxford" and "Rehearsal for War," all of which were exceedingly interesting.

The feature, which has both educational and entertainment value, will no doubt prove very popular with South African audiences.

Charlie Berman's band will be in attendance and refreshments will be served.

Mr. J. Bahr, Shekel Commissioner for South Africa, and Mrs. M. Franks, Chairlady of the Johannesburg Shekel Committee, are among the sponsors of this affair. A very enjoyable evening is anticipated.
