University Picture at Metro

In "A Yank at Oxford," the film now showing at the Metro, Robert Taylor takes the part of an American student at one of the Oxford Colleges. There are some excellent scenes of University life, and the whole show goes with a swing. Lionel Barrymore, Vivien Leigh and Maureen O'Sullivan, who appear in the film, also give outstanding performances, and help to make this picture the tremendous success it is.

An "At Home"

Under the auspices of the Women's Zionist League an "at home" will be held in the Memorial Hall, on Wednesday, 27th April, at 3.30 p.m. sharp. Advocate A. Davis will speak on "Walter Rathenau." Attendance is cordially invited.

Brilliant Symphony Concert

Music-lovers had every reason to enjoy the programme presented at the second concert of the season given by the Johannesburg Symphony Society in the City Hall on Wednesday night. Under the baton of Mr. Joseph Traunek, the orchestra distinguished itself by some brilliant renderings, while Mr. Leopold Premyslav, as soloist, gave a notable performance of Wieniawski's Violin Concerto in D Minor. Undeterred by the complexities of this interesting work—one of the most difficult concertos ever written—Mr. Premyslav played with astonishing ease and dexterity, extracting a beautiful, singing tone from his violin, and revealing much judgment and a considerable interpretative gift.

The chief event of the evening was Brahms's Fourth Symphony. Despite some unevenness and faltering immediately after the opening passages, the orchestra on the whole acquitted itself very creditably, never obscuring the clear and beautiful design of the symphonic structure by over-emphasis on details.

The South African composer chosen for inclusion in this programme was Mr. Colin Taylor. His Prelude and Sarabande for Strings was handled, as this graceful little work demands, with charm and delicacy.

The concert opened with Goldmarks' "Sakuntala" Overture.

Children's Carnival

A merry afternoon is promised for the youngsters who attend the children's carnival and fete to be held on Sunday, May 1, at 2.30 p.m., at the residence of Mrs. H. Bloch, 30 Eleventh Avenue, Houghton Estate. Among the attractions of the afternoon will be numerous side-shows, and a fancy-dress parade, and, owing to the generosity of Mrs. S. Sive, every child who enters for the latter will receive a prize.

The fete will be opened by Mrs. Leopold Greenberg. Prizes are being donated by Mrs. Karnovsky, Mrs. M. Franks, Mrs. Jacobson and Miss Bertha Pelunsky. The judges will be Mrs. Wolf Hillman, Mrs. S. Sive, Mrs. A. S. Hersov and Mrs. S. Katzen (president of the Johannesburg Women's Zionist League).

The organisers of the function are the Houghton branch of the Women's Zionist League, and tickets can be obtained from the Secretary, Mrs. Shapiro, 110 Killarney Court, Killarney. Phone: 41-2280.
