SUCCESSFUL ORT - OZE MARKET

Fine Work By Group of Workers

A fleet of motor cars brought large numbers of shoppers last Friday morning to the Ort-Oze Market at the home of Mrs. S. Furman, Lower Houghton. It speaks well for the efficiency of the transport organiser, Mrs. C. I. Effune, that the arrangements were excellently carried out.

Groceries, provisions, confectionery, vegetables, books, flowers and a large variety of other goods were temptingly displayed on well arranged stalls. Members of the Committee and other willing assistants acted as saleswomen and a brisk trade was done.

Refreshments were served in an improvised tent-garden on the lawns, and tea-cups were read by an amateur fortune teller.

The function resulted in a record sum being raised in support of Ort-Oze funds.

The following were the stallholders: Fruit and Vegetables: Mesdames H. Bodenstein, Fred Cohen and I. G. Dickman; Grocery, Mesdames M. Miller, M. Segal and M. Flax; Health Products, Mesdames J. Jacobson (convener), A. Chenik, L. Feldman, Friedman and Miss Jacobson. Cakes and Biscuits, Mesdames S. Kruger, S. Kartun and Miss H. Myers; Sweets and Cigarettes, Mesdames A. Cramer (convener), L. Miller, J. Shreero and J. Batnitzky; Provisions, Mesdames R. Feldman, B. Feldman, S. Furman and S. Schneier; Flowers and Plants, Mesdames J. Glasser, I. Moskow and E. Melamed; Books, Mrs. L. NEW PICTURE AT THE COLOSSEUM

The current attraction at the Colosseum Theatre is "The Rage of Paris" featuring the new and unbelievably lovely French star, Danielle Darrieux. Playing opposite her is Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who does some excellent acting. The story is very good, and Mischa Auer and Helen Broderick lend ample support to the stars. From Wednesday next the film at this theatre will be "Hurricane," the new Samuel Goldwyn production, for which the booking is already open. At the top of the cast are Dorothy Lamour, Jon Hall and C. Aubrey Smith.

"ROBIN HOOD" RETURNS TO PLAZA

From to-day "The Adventures of Robin Hood" makes its popular return at the Plaza Theatre. Errol Flynn is in the leading role, and Olivia De Havilland plays opposite him. The excellent cast includes Basil Rathbone, Claude Rains and Reginald Owen, as well as many more well-known names. The story is exciting, the scenery is very beautiful, and all on the cast give first class performances.

POPULAR TEAM AT THE METRO

The popular team of "Test Pilot," Clark Gable and Myrna Loy, will be seen at the Metro Theatre this week in yet another of their thrilling films, "Too Hot to Handle." The story is a fast moving one depicting the life of a news reel reporter, and showing the risks to which he exposes himself in order to get "Hot" news. The supporting programme is well up to the usual high standard.

CIRCUS CONTINUES AT THE EMPIRE

The Empire Theatre has been packed to the doors during the whole of the first week of the gigantic Olympic Circus. Every act on the programme is thrilling from start to finish, and clowns keep the audience in fits of laughter between scenes. The animals have been perfectly trained to do the most amazing things, and tightrope and trapeze artists send shivers down one's spine.

MAYFAIR LADIES' MIZRACHI

On Tuesday, the 8th inst., many of the Mayfair Ladies' Mizrahi met at the residence of Mrs. Zidel, for their Annual General Meeting.

Mrs. Meyerowitz, the outgoing Chairlady, in her presidential report spoke of the work the Organisation had done for Eretz Israel, and of the many new members that were enrolled during the past year.

The following office-bearers were elected for the coming year: Chairlady, Mrs. J. Ben; Vice-chairlady, Mrs. L. Perelson; Treasurer, Mrs. P. Lakob; Secretary, Miss B. Sidel.

Rabbi Peck then addressed the gathering, taking as his subject the "Ideology of the Mizrahi." He dealt with the problems facing the Zionist Movement in general, and the Mizrahi in particular. The address was followed by numerous questions.

Mrs. Meyerowitz was unanimously elected Honorary Life Chairlady.

NEW EDITION OF "COTTON CLUB"

Brilliant Show at the Guild

The 1939 edition of the popular "Cotton Club Revue" was presented to a large audience at the Jewish Guild on Sunday last. This is the third and most successful of the revues to be produced by the Guild's musical art section.

An outstanding feature of the show was the excellent dancing for which Miss Gerty Schneider was responsible. She presented troupes of dancers in a wide variety ballet, ensemble and exhibition dancing. The chorus and the musical work was also very good.

The first half of the programme was a "Cruise" through Hawaii, Shanghai, Russia, Spain and Harlem, and in each of these places national dances were performed. Soloists supplied vocal and instrumental items.

The second portion consisted of a Harlem cabaret in which were packed a number of brilliant items with excellent artists and dancers, mention of all of whom would require considerable space.

The compère was Mr. Dudley Cassell, and the producer, Mr. Louis Sachs, is to be congratulated upon an extremely bright and successful production.

MR. D. KOENIG'S EXHIBITION

Dr. Henry Gluckman, M.P., will open an exhibition of paintings and drawings of South African subjects by Mr. D. Koenig, on Friday, November 18th, 1938, at 5.15 p.m. at the Jane Plotz Studios, Thrupp's Edg., Pritchard Street. The exhibition will be open until November 26th.
