Exhibition of Paintings Cancelled

Owing to unforeseen circumstances, the public exhibition of paintings and sculpture by the Union of Jewish Artists of Paris will not take place. A series of private views, however, will be held, the first to take place at the residence of Mrs. Jack Sneider, 48 Oxford Road, Parktown, on Saturday, April 1, from 3 to 6.30 p.m., and on Sunday, April 2, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and 3 to 6.30 p.m.

Dr. A. Shedrow will give a short address at the opening on Saturday at 3 p.m. The collection is representative of thirty-eight artists, including world-famous names such as Marc, Chagal, Nahum, Aronson and Kissling.

DRAWING ROOM MEETINGS

Further Series Being Planned

Although the Propaganda Campaign in Johannesburg itself has been completed, the success of the Drawing Room Meetings has inspired Zionist Societies to continue to adopt this channel for spreading the Zionist idea among the local Jewish community. The Joint Committee of the Johannesburg Zionist Society and the Women's Zionist League has already begun arrangements for the organisation of a further series of Drawing Room meetings.

Mr. E. Eisenberg's Portrait of "President Kruger"

The Johannesburg City Council recently purchased Mr. E. Eisenberg's fine crayon portrait of President Kruger. It will be hung with the other Kruger exhibits in the Africana Museum.

Specialising in crayon portraiture, Mr. Eisenberg, before coming to Johannesburg, studied for several years in Paris with Professor Bouchier. He is also a former student of the Capetown Art School.

WELDON'S LADIES' JOURNAL.

A helpful and interesting booklet, "Home Furnishing," is given away with the March number of Weldon's Ladies' Journal, which is now on sale at all newsagents and booksellers. The Witwatersrand University post-graduate scholarship for 1939 has been awarded to Mr. R. H. Kantorowich.

Mizrachi Ball

The second annual ball organised by the Young Mizrachi Organisation held on Saturday evening last, proved an enjoyable affair.

The ballroom was decorated in yellow, white and green streamers, and were attractively illuminated when torch dance took place later in the evening.

The committee responsible were Miss H. Rubenstein (who was convener), Miss M. Ratner, Miss Kagan, Mr. H. S. Liebatt, Mr. Glazer and Mr. C. Gordon.

Mr. Adolph Hallis

Mr. Hallis, the celebrated African pianist, will be arriving in this country after an interval of nine years. His first concert engagement will be with the Capetown Orchestra, on April 27. He will later give recitals in Johannesburg, Durban and other towns.

Brilliant Ice-Skating at the Empire

An entirely new stage entertainment is being shown at the Empire Theatre in Johannesburg. The opening performance on Monday evening of "Switzerland," with its magnificent dancing on ice, was received rapturously by a thrilled audience. The skating of the members of the company is superlative. There is a wonderful grace throughout and some extremely clever balancing. The performance of the graceful Melitta is a memorable quality. To see this Melina perform the famous Dance is an exquisite experience.

The most prominent male skater performer is Phil Taylor, who besides possessing grace and consummate skill, is a fine showman. His work is very attractive. The show generally is interspersed with humorous bits and there are three excellent variety turns. The "compere" was Eddie Marcel is a joy in itself.

Congratulations to the African Theatres for bringing out this Tom Arnold production and for giving the Johannesburg public something entirely unique in stage entertainment.

Mr. Abe Herman's Activities

Mr. Abe Herman has had another busy week. On Wednesday, March 22, he was one of the speakers at a gathering of students of Hebrew held at the Coronation Hall, whilst on Friday evening, 24th March, he addressed a gathering in Berea under the auspices of Habonim. He paid another visit to Benoni on Monday, March 27, and delivered an eloquent address at a drawing-room meeting held as part of the Propaganda Campaign in Benoni. The following evening he was one of the speakers at a gathering of Zionist Youth and Habonim leaders held in Johannesburg. Continuing his work tirelessly, Mr. Herman on the following day journeyed to Klerksdorp at the invitation of the local Zionist Society. This was by no means his last meeting of the week and on Thursday evening he was again out on the Rand assisting in the Propaganda Campaign.

Mr. Herman's first public address in Johannesburg, which is due to be delivered at Coronation Hall on Sunday evening, 2nd April, is being awaited with the greatest interest.

Concert for Jewish Immigrants' Fund

A charity concert in aid of the Jewish Immigrants' Help Fund will be held on Sunday at 8.30 p.m., at the E.O.D. Hall, De Villiers Street. Mr. Isidor Epstein, the celebrated pianist, will play a movement of a concerto accompanied by an orchestra of 36 players under Mr. Joseph Trauneck. Other artists who will participate are Mrs. Betty Rappaport, soprano; Mr. Abramowitz, violinist; and Mr. Hermann Herz, piano.

Behrman—Markowitz

The marriage took place in the Berea Synagogue recently of Miss Blossom Markowitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Markowitz, of Sydenham, and Mr. Harry (Sonny) Behrman, elder son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. Behrman. The Rev. Mr. Steinberg, assisted by Rabbi Gervis, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by the maid of honour, Miss Raye Hersch, and the bridesmaids, Miss C. Noll and Miss T. Wax. Little Denise Noll, the bride's niece, was in the retinue, and wore a miniature of the bridesmaids' frocks.

The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Markowitz and Mr. and Mrs. H. Israel, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Mr. C. Behrman, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. C. Israel and G. Behrman.

Susman—Schneider

The marriage of Miss Cecilia Schneider to Mr. Reuben Susman, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Susman, took place at the Berea Synagogue on Sunday evening last.

The maid of honour was Miss Reina Susman, while the bridesmaids were Miss E. Berkowitz, Miss Daphne Susman, Miss Isserow and the flower girls, Cherry Schneider and Sylvia Malin.

Mr. and Mrs. Susman left for their honeymoon which is being spent at Margate.

Max Miller at the Plaza

Said to be one of this year's brightest and merriest comedies, "Thank Evans" is this week's attraction at the Plaza theatre.

In his latest role, Max Miller takes the part of a tipster, who just can't tip right. "If you want to lose money, try Evans," is what people say. However, in the end (by accident) he picks a winner. The comedian is supported by Polly Ward, an attractive newcomer to the screen.

On the stage, the Empire Troupe of dancers are outstanding and help to make the evening truly enjoyable.

Second Week of "Pygmalion"

George Bernard Shaw's satirical play "Pygmalion," now in its second week at the Metro theatre, is still drawing huge crowds.

Leslie Howard gives a fine performance in the leading role of a professor of phonetics, who wagers that in a few months he can educate a Cockney flower-girl to a standard which will enable him to pass her off as a duchess. This he does, with hilarious consequences. The part of the flower-girl is brilliantly portrayed by Wendy Hiller (a new find by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer). Supporting these two brilliant stars is a fine cast of polished English actors. The production is full of fine subtleties which are rarely seen in a film story.

"The Ware Case" at the Colosseum

After an absence of about a year, Clive Brook returns to the screen in another one of Associated British's master-murder dramas "The Ware Case," this week's attraction at the Colosseum theatre. Taking the part of Sir Hubert Ware, who, through his unbounded generosity, is always in trouble, he once again gives one of those magnificent performances which have kept him at the top of his class for so long.

With excellent support from Jane Baxter (Lady Ware) and Barry K. Barnes, as Clive Brook's best friend, "The Ware Case" should not be missed.

Formby fans will be glad to hear that George Formby's newest film "Trouble Brewing" will soon be showing at this theatre.

YIDDISH FILM AT STANDARD THEATRE

"The Cantor's Son"

Large audiences are filling the Standard Theatre every evening to witness the screening of "The Cantor's Son" — a Yiddish talkie film with English titles. The production is on a lavish scale and Moshe Oysher, the "Jewish Caruso," delights with his magnificent tenor voice.

The story is a moving one and gives very fine flashes of both American and Polish-Jewish life. In view of the success of the film, patrons are urged to book well in advance.
