Johannesburg Wedding

Gromer—Witkin

marriage took place at Wolthe 8th inst., of Louis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Witkin, Hilda, elder daughter of Mr. and A. Gromer, of Johannesburg.

Gromer has been associated the work of the Jewish Guild time and has lately occu-the position of Secretary to the tion and carried out her du-most capably. Mr. Witkin is a er of a well-known Jewish fam-

A BRILLIANT RECITAL

fourth recital under the of the Community Concert ation took place in the large of the St. John's College, on evening, when Carola Goya, ent American dancer, gave a ful and interesting perform-of specialised Spanish dancing. was rare grace and delicacy of ent in her work and her pre-sions had the added attraction entirely new to Johannes-Miss Goya's dancing, as well music of the great contemporish composers she used, truly ed the Spanish spirit. The ame was unique and most ene. There was a distinguished e present.

There can be no doubt of the high of the four recitals already during the last few months by Community Concert Association.

BALFOUR PARK DANCE

Held at the Wanderers Hall

THE Wanderers Hall was attractively decorated with blue and white streamers on Wednesday night for the second annual dance of the Balfour Park Club. The function attracted a gathering of four hundred people who danced to the strains of Charles Berman's personal orchestra.

The function was under the patronage of the Mayor and Mayoress, and during the evening the Mayor took the opportunity of delivering a short address, while the Mayoress presented the Southern Transvaal League cup to Mr. Miller, vice-captain of the winning team, the first soccer team of the Balfour Park Club. Mr. Alf Cooper, the Chairman of the S.A.
Schools Football Association, delivered a short address.

The committee responsible for the success of the function were Mr. I.
Teeger, Chairman; Miss L. Siefert, Secretary, and Messrs. Harold and Lionel Bernstein, A. Hyman, S.
Matus, S. Sassen, A. Leiman, A. Ruda, I. Beira and the Misses S. Milner, E. Lakofski, S. Kasan, A. Berger, P.
Safro, Mrs. Aubrey, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Matus. The proceeds of the dance will go to the S.A. National Mayors' War Fund.

Johannesburg Women's Zionist League

next meeting will be held on Thursday, October 19th, at 10.30 a.m., at the residence of Mrs. R. Jaff, 29 Observatory Avenue. Mrs. Soreson will speak on "Woman in primitive society." This is the first of a series of lectures on "The Jewish Woman through the Ages."

Around the Cinemas

At the Colosseum

Claudette Colbert, Don Ameche, John Barrymore, Francis Lederer and Mary Astor, all appear in "Midnight," the film at the Colosseum this week, and with these stars in the cast, there can only be one result—a delightful film. Every one of these actors gives a first-rate performance and helps to make the seeing of this rollicking, romantic comedy an unforgettable experience.
The supporting programme is up to its usual high standard.

"The Girl Downstairs" at the Metro

"The Girl Downstairs," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film at the Metro this week, is a picture full of delicious fun. Featuring in it are Fran-chot Tone and Franciska Gaal, both of whom give performances that rank among their best. It is a film that is sure to appeal to Johannesburg theatre-goers, and should attract large audiences. The news, shorts and Archie Parkhouse at the Wurlitzer add to an excellent all-round programme.

Attractions at the Plaza

Gracie Allen and Warren William in "The Gracie Allen Murder Case," the screen version of the story by S.
S. van Dine, is still drawing large audiences at the Plaza Theatre.
There is something irresistible about Gracie Allen in this new film, and the part of Philco Vance is excellently portrayed by Warren William. The story moves at a great pace to an exciting finish. The next attraction at this theatre will be "Newsboy's Home," a Universal Picture, featuring the "Little Tough Guys," Mischa Auer and Edward Everett Horton.

Zionist Youth Ball in Cape Town

The Zionist Hall, Cape Town, was crowded when the Zionist Youth held a mammoth youth ball on Monday last. The ballroom was transformed with flowered panels round the walls and coloured lights. The stage was converted into a garden scene, complete with swing, and in the centre of the floor stood a floodlit fir-tree.
Multi-coloured lights played on the ceiling.

Pupils of the Elvira Kirsch Studio of Dancing provided an attractive interlude.

The Mayor and Mayoress of Cape Town, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brinton, were guests of honour, and were entertained by the commissioner of the Western Province Habonim, Mr. H.
Stern and Mrs. Stern.
