"Daughters Courageous" at the Colosseum

Warner Bros. have achieved another triumph in their production of "Daughters Courageous," showing at the Colosseum Theatre this week. The Lane sisters, John Garfield, Claude Rains, Jeffrey Lynn, Gale Page and May Robson head the cast in this brilliant film. In this week's excellent supporting programme will be included a ballet of dancing interpreted to Liszt's rhapsody No. 2 and presented by Madame Naruna.

Attractions at the Plaza

"The Adventures of Robin Hood," featuring Errol Flynn, will be shown to-day at the Plaza Theatre, thus repeating another popular success. Commencing to-morrow, Warner Bros. will present Dick Powell, Ann Sheridan and Allen Jenkins in "Naughty but Nice." The war news, shorts and the rest of the supporting programme is up to the usual high standard of entertainment.

Wallace Beery at the Metro

"Thunder Afloat," an amazing story of submarine warfare, will be shown at the Metro Theatre this week. Wallace Beery and Chester Morris take the leading roles and the film is claimed to be the most stirring sea adventure since the production of "Mutiny on the Bounty." The supporting programme, including news of the war, shorts and Archie Parkhouse in songs at the Wurlitzer, completes a good evening's entertainment.

"You Can't Take It With You!"

On Friday evening next, the 17th inst., a play entitled, "You Can't Take It With You!" will be produced at the Library Theatre by "The Playmakers." It is expected that there will be a distinguished audience present for the occasion.
