MR. JERRY SCHULMAN

—the talented musical conductor, who will lead the combined Johannesburg Symphony Orchestras of seventy-eight musicians at the concert to be held at the Colosseum Theatre on Sunday evening.

The programme will include the Rimsky - Korsakov Symphonic Suite, "Scheherezade"; two ballet excerpts from Berlioz's "Faust"—"Dance of the Sprites" and "Dance of the Sylphs"; Massenet's "The Last Dream of the Virgin"; Bordin's "Prince Igor Dances"; and two modern works, a Swedish Rhapsody, "Midsomervarka" (Hugo Alfvén) and "Praeludium," by Amos Jarnfelt, the famous Finnish composer and conductor.

Mr. Schulman, the conductor, was born in London but owes his musical development chiefly to this country, and particularly to Johannesburg. The orchestral concert on Sunday evening should draw a large audience.

MRS. HADASSAH SAMUEL ENTERTAINED

Branches Combine for "Morning Tea"

Mrs. Hadassah Samuel was the guest of honour at a morning tea held at the residence of Mrs. A. R. Bloch, 3 St. David's Place, Parktown, on the 15th April. The function was arranged by the Mayfair, Bertrams, Auckland Park, Doornfontein, Booyens and Southern Suburbs Branches.

Mrs. Samuel, who was accompanied by Dr. D. Katzen and Mrs. S. Denton, delivered an eloquent address on "Palestine Women And Their Achievements." Mrs. S. Ostroff presided, and Mrs. Abrams thanked Mrs. Samuel for her inspiring address. Mrs. Frame proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. A. R. Bloch for her hospitality.

A CHILDREN'S FETE

A children's fete will be held on Sunday, May 5, at 2 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. H. L. Zinn, 9, 5th Avenue, Lower Houghton. Among the many attractions of the afternoon will be a fancy-dress competition, merry-go-round, cinema shows, lucky dips, a ventriloquist, a clown and races. Valuable prizes will be given for the best-dressed boy and girl in the fancy-dress competition which will be divided into two sections—for children under six, and for children from six to twelve years of age. A prize will also be awarded to the child, irrespective of its age, who wears the best national costume.

Entertainment will also be provided for the adults, as clock-golf and tennis are being arranged for them.

The fete is to be held under the auspices of the Houghton Branch of the Women's Zionist League.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Policansky, of Tel-Aviv, who have been on a visit to South Africa during the last several months, are leaving this week-end by air from Durban on their return to Palestine.

The engagement is announced of Celia, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wasserman, of Grahamstown, to Maxwell Lipworth, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lipschitz, of Johannesburg.

The marriage of Ada, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kaplan, Johannesburg, to Dave, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Donsky, will be solemnised at the Berea Synagogue, on Sunday, May 5, at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Speier (nee Rosie Markusowitz), are being congratulated on the birth of a bonny boy on April 17.
