TAMARA SAMSONOV TO APPEAR AT
20th CENTURY
Concert in Aid of Habimah

Arrangements for the Habimah concert, which is to be held in the 20th Century Theatre on Sunday, 27th September, are now in full swing and already tickets are in great demand. Miss Tamara Samsonov, the young Palestinian actress, will appear, and an excellent supporting programme has been arranged. Among the artists who have already consented to appear are Miss Rose Alper, the brilliant soprano; Miss Peggy Hayman, the well-known violinist, and Mr. Dean Herrick, who will play a selection of Hebrew melodies. Booking is at the 20th Century Theatre, where tickets may be obtained.

A strong committee, consisting of committee members of the Habimah Circle and co-opted members, well-known for their interest in Jewish affairs and worthy causes of all kinds, is working hard to ensure the success of what promises to be an outstanding artistic occasion. The committee includes Mrs. Ethel Hayman (chair), Mrs. A. Senior, Mrs. I. Balkin, Mrs. M. Goldfoot, Mrs. M. Zwi, Mrs. C. Sachs, Mrs. M. Berman, Mrs. R. Feldman, Mrs. C. Herber, Mrs. S. Gavronsky, Mrs. B. Friedman, Mrs. A. Kantor, Mrs. T. Saphra, Mrs. Hepker, Mrs. Lily Joffe, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. N. Lurie and Mrs. I. Gering.

TEMPLE ISRAEL

The engagement is announced of Maisie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Thal, of Cradock, to Rabbi A. H. Lapin, of Johannesburg.

The engagement is announced of Capt. Victor Resnekov, S.A.M.C., eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. C. Resnekov, of Woodstock, Cape Town, to Atara, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Caspi, of Haifa, Palestine.

The engagement is announced of Mickey, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Cohen, of Kestell, O.F.S., and Dr. I. Gross, son of Mrs. Gross and the late Mr. A. Gross.

The marriage took place on August 27th, at Cape Town, of Joyce, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Trout, of Sea Point, to Max, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. Rosenberg, Johannesburg.

Congratulations are being extended to Beady and Flo Diamond (nee Levin), on the birth of a son, on September 4th, at Kimberley.

The engagement is announced of Ray, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Berlinsky, of Cape Town, to Ralph, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lotz, of Benoni.

MRS. ANNIE LANDAU

Mrs. Annie Landau, widow of the late Chief Rabbi Dr. J. L. Landau, is leaving Johannesburg to-day for Springs, where she will spend the High Festivals with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. David Landau.

DR. LANDAU'S LIBRARY FOR RAND UNIVERSITY

We learn that the late Chief Rabbi Dr. J. L. Landau has bequeathed his entire library, including his manuscripts and notes, to the Witwatersrand University, at which he was Professor of Hebrew. Dr. Landau's library contained many rare and valuable volumes constituting a most comprehensive collection of Judaica. We understand that the Witwatersrand University is going to place the collection in its entirety in a special Landau Section of the University Library.

S.A. WOMEN'S MIZRACHI ORGANISATION

A well attended literary afternoon was held under the auspices of the S.A. Women's Mizrachi Organisation, at the Carlton Hotel, on Thursday, 27th August. Mrs. J. L. Zlotnik, who presided, referred to the irreparable loss which the S.A. Jewish community had suffered through the death of Dr. J. L. Landau.

L/Cpl. Mrs. E. Maissel of Muizenberg, the president of the Women's Mizrachi Organisation of the Cape Peninsula, and a delegate to the first Mizrachi Conference, delivered an inspiring address on "The First Pioneers of Zionism."

Mrs. R. Katz gave a short resumé of the proceedings of the Mizrachi Conference and also proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker.
