Tom Arnold's New Review.

TO OPEN AT ALHAMBRA ON SEPTEMBER 1st.

Tom Arnold's new revue "O-Kay for Laughs," which took Johannesburg by storm begins its Cape Town season at the Alhambra on Wednesday, 1st September, and the booking is now open. George Lacy is perhaps the best comedian in revue to-day. As a female impersonator he is second to none, and he presents various original character sketches.

Alec Harland is an inimitable foil to the comedian, and is himself a comedian of outstanding merit.

Helen Binnie, the leading lady is most versatile. She combines an excellent soprano voice with a personality and talent for comedy. Other outstanding and well-known revue artists in the company include Helen McKay, the B.B.C. Television star; Medlock and Marlowe novelty dancers; Len Clifford, comedian, who recently co-starred with Renee Houston; Marian Lincoln, a pretty soubrette who dances and sings in a delightful manner; Jessica Merton, speciality and ballet dancer; the Three Calores, musical sisters, who play several instruments; Geoffrey Denton, baritone and juvenile lead; Sirdani, an illusionist, who received his training from Houdini, and the J. Sherman Fisher Girls, a bevy of English beauties whose dancing is one of the highlights of the show.

"O-Kay for Laughs" is said to contain a succession of comedy sketches and humorous situations which should meet with the approval of the Cape Town audiences. Three revolving stages are to be used in order to deal with the rapid changes of scenery necessary in this ambitious production, which will be in the hands of Mr. Harry Silvester.

ROYAL.

All the romance and grandeur of England in the adventurous days of Queen Elizabeth and the Spanish Armada come to life on the screen in "Fire Over England," Alexander Korda's great film which will be shown at the Royal Theatre on Monday next.

Flora Robson, the distinguished English actress, portrays the "Virgin Queen" in the film, while Laurence Olivier is seen as the impetuous young Michael Ingolby who risks his life to serve her; the lovely Vivien Leigh, the screens most sensational newcomer, is seen as the Queen's lady-in-waiting and sweetheart of young Michael; Leslie Banks is cast as Leicester, who loved and was loved by Elizabeth; Raymond Massey plays King Philip of Spain; the beautiful Tamara Desni, another newcomer for whom a brilliant future is predicted, plays the Spanish girl who saves Michael; and Morton Selten is seen as the aged Burleigh.

NEW GRAND.

The amazing boy singer Bobby Breen, who has captivated the hearts of Cape Town's cinemagoers in "Rainbow on the River" will be seen for two more days only owing to this film being required on the Rand. This picture has had a remarkable run and has broken all records in Cape Town. It will be followed on Monday by another excellent production, "The Woman I Love," featuring Paul Muni and Miriam Hopkins. This is splendid entertainment and we recommend it as one of the finest we have seen for a long time.
