New Variety Company for the Alhambra.

The new variety company headed by the famous film stars Billy Costello (Popeye), Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon will begin their season at the Alhambra on Monday, the 29th November, and the booking plans are now open at the Alhambra and Grand Theatre Booking Offices.

Billy Costello, originally a blues singer, is now famous as being the only and original "Popeye," he is the famous voice that has delighted thousands of film fans and his singing and acting on the stage as "Popeye" actually bring the delightful and popular film cartoon character to life. Another well-known artist will be Zelma O'Neal, one of America's most popular comedienne. Juana and Juanita, two dark-haired, bright-eyed girls, despite their Spanish names, are of London birth and come from a generation of public entertainers. Juanita for instance, is in private life Jenny Sandler, a sister of the violinist, Albert Sandler, whose gramophone records are sold in large numbers yearly, while Jenny herself, although too young yet to look back on a long theatrical career has already had some varied experiences in a variety act of her own and with a musical ensemble, the Five Magnets.

An act which has played in all the leading variety theatres, cabarets and hotels in the West End of London, the provinces and the Continent, is the MacDonald Twins and Roy, acrobatic dancers, who have also done a great deal of film work.

A comedian with personality is Len Young, who given a bare stage and an audience is sure to have his house loud with laughter within a minute or two. His present act is surprisingly varied, switching from a burlesque of an American "sponsored-broadcast" programme to a series of remarkable impersonations. Anita Martell, who is only sixteen years old, is an accomplished juggler.

BEBE DANIELS.

BEN LYON.

BILLY COSTELLO ("Popeye").

ROYAL

Gable, as Parnell, unquestionably plays the most impressive role of his brilliant career and Miss Loy, as Katie O'Shea, reveals her remarkable talent as an emotional actress in "Parnell" coming to the Royal next Monday, in contrast to her recent comedy roles.

Edna May Oliver, Billie Burke, Aian Marshall, Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Berton Churchill, Donald Meek and others have prominent roles and in addition there is a large group of native Irish men and women who provide realistic atmosphere.

GRAND.

On account of numerous requests and in order to allow those hundreds of patrons who were unable to gain admission when recently shown, the Grand will screen on Monday and Tuesday next, "Three Smart Girls," the musical sensation with the singing star Deanna Durbin. This great young star was found and brought out by Eddie Cantor and she created records wherever shown. On Wednesday for four days, the Grand will show Bobby Howes in the latest British screaming comedy "Please Teacher."

The Milnerton Turf Club.
