CAPE TOWN HERZLIA.

The Herzlia meeting which was to have been held this Sunday night at Rosecourt, has been postponed for a week, in order to enable all members to attend the mass meeting to be addressed by Adv. H. M. Bloch at the Zionist Hall.

Jewish Ministers' Association.

A very well attended meeting was held on Sunday afternoon last at the office of the Beth-Din. Rabbi Grawitzky presided.

Rabbi B. Lipshitz reported on the fourth conference of the Board of Jewish Education which took place recently in Cape Town, at which three delegates participated. Rabbi Grawitzky also spoke.

The fifth annual conference of the Jewish Ministers' Association, which will take place in Johannesburg on the 21st and 22nd inst., was discussed. Rabbis Grawitzky, Isaacson, Lipshitz, and the Revs. Dorogov, Melamed, Sandler, Pakter and Gules participated. All speakers were of the opinion that the conference will have to find the necessary ways and means of raising the prestige of the ministers as the religious leaders of the communities and also of improving their economic and spiritual position.

The following are the committee members of the above Association: Rabbis S. Grawitzky, M. Morgenstern and Dr. Rabinowitz, the Revs. Melamed and Isaacson, Rev. Dorogov, treasurer, and Mr. B. Lipshitz, hon. secretary.
