Charles Kreitzer with the C.T. Orchestra.

BRILLIANT PLAYING.

Charles Kreitzer gave a brilliant performance of Elgar's Viola Concerto in E Minor with the Cape Town Orchestra on Thursday night, September 25th, at the City Hall.

This was the first public performance of Lionel Teris' arrangement of Elgar's 'Cello Concerto for Viola in Cape Town.

The soloist, who is a regular viola player of the Cape Town Orchestra, sounded freer and surer than ever, and his excellent musicianship and his unusually fine tone fully justified the principle that the outstanding young members of the Orchestra should be given opportunities of playing solo parts. This principle will help to develop the individual musical personality of the artists chosen, and prevent them from becoming wholly absorbed in the routine of orchestral playing.

Charles Kreitzer may certainly take the reception of this concerto as an indication of how welcome his services will be again on future occasions. B.C.

Lionel Bowman.

Lionel Bowman was the soloist at the Plebescite Concert given by the Municipal Orchestra at the City Hall on Sunday night. He scored a great success for his playing of Liszt's Hungarian Fantasia for piano and orchestra and received a fine ovation from the very large audience present.
