A WOMAN'S FACE.

His Majesty's Theatre MUIZENBERG.

"Mamele," a Yiddish film starring the world famous actress Molly Picon will be screened at His Majesty's Theatre, Muizenberg, on Tuesday, 30th December. In this film the star has every opportunity to show her inimitable talents, and during the course of the story there are several traditional Yiddish songs. Though the dialogue is Yiddish there are English sub-titles, making the story easy to follow, and the picture is worth seeing a second and even a third time.

In addition, stage acts will be presented, when Harry Rabinowitz, Dolly Neiman and Aaron Drabkin will appear in new songs and sketches.

PLAZA.

Blending fast-paced adventure with an unconventional romance, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Honky-Tonk," the next attraction at the Plaza, presents Clark Gable and Lana Turner in the starring roles. This is a story of a Western mining gold camp. Gable appears as a fascinating card sharp and the plot is a blend of amusing and exciting incidents as Gable is run out of one camp after another. Included in an outstanding supporting cast are Frank Morgan, Claire Trevor, Marjorie Main and Albert Dekker.

ODEON.

Those who saw "Topper" will look forward to the sequel of the Thorne Smith story, depicting the further misadventure of Topper, Hal Roach's "Topper Takes a Trip," which opens at the Odeon Theatre, Sea Point, at the midnight matinee on Christmas Eve. Featured in the film are Roland Young, Constance Bennett and Billie Burke.

Adelaide Newman in Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue

An impressive performance of George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue was given by Adelaide Newman, the soloist, with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra at Sunday night's concert at the City Hall.

Her musicianship, thorough understanding of the work and her masterly command of the keyboard made her an ideal interpreter of the work. The subtlest contrast and most stirring effect were produced brilliantly with no hint of strain.

A repeat performance will be given at the Muizenberg Pavilion on Saturday, 3rd January, and should draw another full house.
